EQUITABLE SERVICES AND SUPPORT

WHAT URAC LOOKS AT

- How your organization weaves health equity into everything you do
- The role of leadership in supporting your health equity efforts
- Practices for staffing including recruitment, retention and training on health equity

- The goals and structure of your health equity program
- How you determine the needs of the population you serve
- Program metrics and evaluation, including quality improvement plans
- How you work with other organizations to meet your organization's health equity goals

- What services you provide
- How you communicate those services and ensure access for the populations you serve
- The mechanisms you have in place for people to express concerns about equitable care
